

DÉJÀ STUDDARD CODE OF ETHICS

---

MISSION

To create work that inspires and adds knowledge value to people and organizations through innovation, creating increased awareness, and conducting high-quality research.

CREDO

Déjà Nicole Studdard is committed to living a life of continued excellence, integrity, and consistent development; Always remembering to treat everyone with respect, and serving members of my community. I make a conscious decision to be the best that I can be every day, no matter the circumstance living by D.E.J.A principles which states being disciplined, excellent, joyful and an advocate will lead to a fulfilled and successful life.

---

COUR VALUES

Discipline

Discipline is the key to success. Discipline is what separates good from great and sustained discipline is what separates great for excellent.

Excellence

Excellence is always the goal. Excellence is achieved by a continual refinement of the skills that I have and working to learn new ones.

Joyfulness

Staying positive and optimistic is the key to overcoming challenges and enjoying the moment. Smiling, laughing, and kindness can fix many situations.

Advocate

I have a responsibility to advocate and serve my industry, community, and the people in it.

---

Déjà Nicole Studdard